

Volunteer Role Description Fundraising and Grants

Why do we need you?

CSW is looking for a volunteer to help support our Partnership and Development team fulfil their strategy in developing the fundraising vision. As CSW grows with more and more unpaid carers accessing information, support, training and breaks from their caring role, as does the identification of new ways of working and helping those in their caring role in the community. New, innovative projects are in addition to CSW essential strategy delivery but are key in finding and identifying new carers in niche communities.

As a Fundraising and grants volunteer you will help and support the Partnerships and Development team research, identify and write bids to secure funding. New to fundraising or with skilled knowledge your contribution would help take forward innovative projects to continue the essential life line that CSW provides to over 11,000 carers in Wiltshire.
